1

Tea & Space
Kikoan

This tearoom's specialties are Japanese tea, matcha green tea, and handmade Japanese sweets of the season—including zenmai (sweet red bean soup with baked mochi) in the winter, and kakigori (shaved ice flavored with syrup) in the summer.

2

Café Demii and Imamura
Garden Store

Enjoy a relaxing and luxurious time with specialty coffee and sweets in an old Japanese-style house café.

3

Fruit sandwich shop
"fun"

This fruit sandwich shop is so popular that people form long lines outside. Enjoy a beautiful cross-section of the fruit and cream filling! Other varieties of sandwiches are also available.

4

Ebisu Taiyaki shop
"Hanada"

Hanada's taiyaki (fish-shaped cake with red bean filling) is crisp on the outside and moist on the inside. Try this warm crisp sweet cake filled with a generous amount of red bean paste, and you may be addicted after just one taste.

5

Café
Elster

Enjoy in-house roasted specialty coffee and cake in the café with a chic atmosphere! You will be welcomed by a lovely cat.
